MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE & DEVELOPMENT

The Indian Textile Industry, has backed up Indian Society and economy since the inception of Indian civilization. This industry has contributed in employment generation and output growth of the country. India after China is now world's largest producers of textiles.

During the year, textile demand remained sluggish due to uncertainty in global economy. India has been losing its competitiveness to China due to almost nil rise in cost of production there and cost of production has increased sharply in India. Demonetisation has added to the challenges faced by the textile sector, which is largely fragmented and unorganized.

However, The Indian Government has come up with a number of policies to give boost to textile sector. Foreign Direct Investment upto 100% by automatic route is also allowed in textile sector.

The present consumption of global man-made fibre (MMF) textiles is about 65% of the textile trade as against 35% in India. The trend in India is also shifting towards use of MMF products. Domestic Textile industry is expected to grow at Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 12.84% and textile exports are expected to grow at a CAGR of 12.06% during the next five years.

OPPORTUNITY AND THREATS

Global demand for MMF is expected to witness a growth of about 2.7% during the next five years, due to limited cotton production and supply coupled with other factors such as lower prices of MMF and increasing consumption of MMF into other applications, for example, home textiles and industrial products. Also, another major driving factor would be the product and process innovations in both traditional and non-traditional textile product areas using MMF.

In view of the special package announced by Government of India for garments and made up sector a few months back, textile sector is expecting better investments. Also, many state governments are also focusing on their state policies to support textile and clothing industry, which will encourage investment in this sector.

Lack of investment in research and development, increase in power costs, lowering margins due to fierce competition and e-commerce, high cost of labour and volatile raw material prices may pose a threat to progress of textile industry.

SEGMENTAL REVIEW AND ANALYSIS

At present, the Company operates in one segment only - synthetic yarn. Despite adverse market conditions in the aftermath of demonetisation, active steps were taken to effectively manage build up of inventory. During the past year, your company completed a small yet significant expansion of its dyeing capacities. This will enable us to increase our share of higher value added yarn yielding better margins.

The problem of lack of skilled and unskilled labour is under control. Increased automation has reduced dependence on labour to some extent. Having in-house power generation has helped us to some extent to contain our power costs.

OUTLOOK

In view of rising requirements of manufacturers of readymade apparels, furnishing textiles and technical textiles, the need and consumption of manmade and synthetic fibre is likely to grow. The main growth drivers for MMF industry are increasing population, limited cotton production, relatively high cotton prices and versatile applications of MMF. MMFs have evolved and are more breathable, easy to maintain and are more durable.

Termination of Trans Pacific Partnership (TPP) deal talks has weakened the prospects for Vietnam and Malaysia, which augurs well for India.

RISKS AND CONCERNS

The rupee is strengthening against the US dollar and other currencies, which will put pressure on margins in exports. Rising cost of production and high labour cost shrink the margins on the textile products. Also, due to lower demand, the prices have not increased in finished fabrics, made-ups and garments, which is also a matter of concern.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS AND ADEQUACY

The Company has in place adequate internal control systems and procedures commensurate with the size and nature of its business. Internal Audit is conducted by independent Chartered Accountants, on a quarterly basis. Independence of the Internal Audit and compliance function is ensured by the direct reporting of the internal audits to the Audit Committee of the Board. The Audit Committee periodically reviews internal control systems with help of the internal and statutory auditors and reports to the Board on its adequacy.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

The report of the Board of Directors may be referred to for financial performance.

HUMAN RESOURCES

The employees on roll in the Company as on 31st March 2017 were 2373.

During the year, there has been no material development in human resources and industrial relations. The Company has a favourable work environment that motivates performance and innovation while adhering to high degree of quality and integrity. The focus of the Company is that rewards and recognition should commensurate with performance and employees should have opportunity to develop and grow for future responsibilities in terms of professional skills as well as business skills.

Industrial relations remained normal at all levels. Customized training programs that enhance both personal as well as career growth are conducted on a continuing basis.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Statements in this Management Discussions and Analysis Report describing the Company objectives, projections, estimates, expectations or predictions may be 'forward looking statements' within the meaning of applicable security laws or regulations. These statements are based on reasonable assumptions and expectations of future events. Actual results could however, differ materially from those expressed or implied. Factors that could make a difference to the Company's operations include market price both domestic and overseas availability and cost of raw materials, change in Government regulations and tax structure, economic conditions affecting demand / supplies and other factors over which the Company does not have any control. The Company takes no responsibility for any consequence of decisions made based on such statements and holds no obligation to update these in future.
